Georg Philipp Telemann: Der Tod Jesu
TVWV 5:6 Oratorio

Telemann's Passion oratorio "Der Tod Jesu" was composed in 1754/55, almost at the same time as the same-named work of note by Carl Heinrich Graun. Both compositions are based on the same libretto by Karl Wilhelm Ramler.In this late work, Telemann consciously juxtaposes carefully structured recitatives with musically reduced festive choruses, thus lending the passion text great musical expressivity.

Bärenreiter Vocal Score BA 5853-90 Pris kr. 389,00

Johann Sebastian Bach:
Now my soul exalts the Lord BWV 10

Cantata for the Feast of Visitation B. V. M.
With his cantata "Meine Seel erhebt den Herren" which Bach composed for the Visitation of Mary (2 July), he created a Magnificat setting of a different kind: The German text source is a combination of biblical text and a free interpretation, the basis being the Marian hymn of praise from the Gospel according to Luke. The 9th psalm tone acts as the chorale melody and becomes a recurring musical theme.

Bärenreiter Vocal Score BA 10010-90 Pris kr. 140,00
